My Failings and Imperfections: the diary of Rees Thomas of Dôl-llan, 1860-1862 by Steve Dubé. 106pp. A very frank revelation of the life of a bachelor son of a moderately wealthy family near Llandysul, 'giving us vital information on a long lost way of life and flourishing local community'.

£5.00 (+£3.00 p&p)

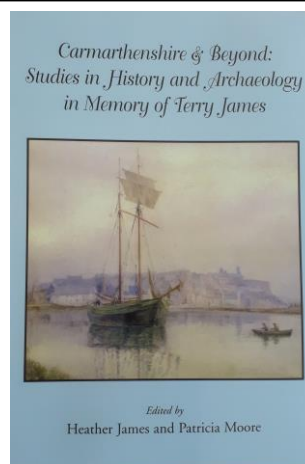

Powell Maesgwynne: philanthropist, sporting great and radical hero by Denley Owen. 209pp. An account of the life and times of W.R.H. Powell, M.P. of Llanboidy, Carmarthenshire, 1819-1889, who defied expectations of local landowners to be a radical supporter of ordinary people. His legacy of public building work in Llanboidy remains a testimony to this remarkable man.

£7.00 (+£3.00 p&p)

Hunangofiant Twm o'r Nant Autobiography. 41pp. 'Probably the most remarkable autobiography ever penned'. Elegantly scribed stories by Thomas Edwards, a carrier and haulier based at Abermarlais, of his early life and his work.

Carmarthenshire & Beyond: studies in history and archaeology in memory of Terry James, edited by Heather James and Patricia Moore. 334pp. A compilation of well-researched articles on topics that reflected Terry James' own wide range of interests, including: printing, photography, mediaeval archaeology and evidence, and Carmarthen's waterfront plus more.
